

Diversity, Equity, & Inclusion Australia - James Cook University

Click on the links for more information.

Campus Overview

The Australian Census does not collect information specific to race or ethnicity, rather focusing on ancestry. Generally, the term “student/person of color” is not used in Australia.

James Cook University’s student body is 60.7% female, 39.3% male. Visit their Equity, Diversity & Inclusion landing page to learn more about their initiatives and Student Equity & Wellbeing Directorate for a list of services available to students.

Services the Campus Offers

James Cook University provides students with wellbeing services. Follow the links for where to find these spaces on campus and what they offer.

- Health Services
- Counselling Services
- Disability & Accessibility Services
- Indigenous Awareness & Resources
- Religion & Multi Faith Services
- Sexual Misconduct Resources

Student Organizations You Can Join

Griffith University has a number of student organizations you can join to connect with others who share your identity. Visit their Clubs and Societies page to browse.

Select from the Townsville Campus and Cairns Campus to view their directories.

Notable Projects and Awards

Griffith University has been recognized for its excellence in diversity and inclusion across several categories. Additionally, you can read about their projects to advance diversity and inclusion.

Reconciliation at JCU is an overview of the university’s commitment to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples.

JCU is participating in SAGE pilot, an organization that uplifts women in STEMM.